

Trapped His Lobster

"Several years I suffered with kidney trouble and rheumatism," states Benj. B. Marchant, Gloucester, Mass. "My wife first tried Colchester by A. T. Van Cleave; Groton by C. S. Davis; Jewett City by J. P. Gorman; Norwalk by W. H. Hill, Taftville by Geo. Thompson.

WATCH YOUR TEETH

Teeth make the face attractive or otherwise to neglect attention to decayed or missing

TEETH

is folly in a man and crime in a woman. Why not make an appointment with us for today?

Paul A. Schwartz
D. M. D.
DENTIST
SOMERS BLOCK, ON THE SQUARE
TELEPHONE 774

Radio Supplies

Binding Posts, Antenna Wire, Conn. Head Sets, Fibre Clips, Insulators, Tubes, Lightning Switches, Sockets, Switch Points, Ground Wire, Protectors, Magnet Wire, Galena Crystals, Rheostats.

Royal Vacuum Cleaners
Universal Washers
Hot Point Irons
Edison Lamps

EATON CHASE CO.
129 Main Street, Norwich, Ct.

NOTICE

DON'T MISS THE BIG SALE ON BEDS—ONLY $2.50

And all kinds of Furniture—new and slightly used, at half of cost price.

AT 11 FERRY STREET
Opposite the Mohican Store.

ATTENTION

SCHOOL TEACHERS, We have a proposition with which you may turn your leisure after school hours into dollars.

Write Box 33, care Bulletin, ap28TAWF

NOTICE

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN—My wife, Leona L. Kibbe, having deserted me, this is to forbid all persons trusting her on my account, as I shall pay no bills contracted by her after this date.

(Signed) EARL KIBBE, Killingly, Conn., April 27, 1922. apr28d

1796 1922

Norwich, Friday, April 28, 1922.

VARIOUS MATTERS

High tides will prevail today (the 28th). This is always day for May.

Light vehicle lamps at 7:11 o'clock this evening.

N. F. A. Boys' Glee Club, Slater Hall, tonight, 25 cents—adv.

An eagle was seen in the vicinity of East Woodstock last Thursday.

A popular book at the Otis library in Campwood No. 1, a manual for Girl Scouts camp.

The Mid-week worship at the United Church Thursday evening was led by Secretary Edwin Hill.

This is cherry blossom week in Norwich, the masses of snowy blooms equalling anything to be seen in far Japan.

The mercury took an abrupt fall during Thursday afternoon and a chilly wind made out of door work uncomfortable.

A former Norwich resident, Mrs. Calvin L. Rawson is to entertain the Social Dames at North Woodstock Saturday.

A little daughter born recently to Mr. and Mrs. Paul Geisler of Abington, is their thirteenth child, and all are living.

It is desired that every man in the country who has attended Yale University make a contribution to the Yale Loan Fund.

N. F. A. Boys' Glee Club, Slater Hall, tonight, 25 cents—adv.

Supper following the meeting of the Ladies' Society of Trinity Methodist church Thursday, when several quilts were sold.

For men here get the disappointing news that marten and fox pelts have been bringing very low prices at the New York fur auction this week.

Get one of those few tickets left at Cranston's for "The Poppy Trail"—adv.

A force of 18 men who are to be employed on the construction of the North Stonington road arrived in Westbury by auto truck from Providence this week.

There was a forest fire at Tolland this week at what is known as the Albert A. place, but now owned by Howard Stetson.

Hartford was chosen for next year's convention city by the Connecticut State Dental association, in New Haven at its recent meeting. The membership is 640.

An East Windsor correspondent notes that Mr. and Mrs. James H. Hurler and Master Robert Hurler of Willimantic were guests of friends there early in the week.

Four consecutive days of frost in Connecticut is a record for this time of year. Some of the fruit trees have been damaged, where the warm days had advanced the buds.

N. F. A. Boys' Glee Club, Slater Hall, tonight, 25 cents—adv.

M. B. Prentiss led the mid-week meeting at Park Congregational church, the singing being by Union and Young Men's Glee Clubs.

Believed to indicate returning big business, yarns have taken a sharp advance, filling yarns for weaving mills being quoted at from $1.15 to $1.25 the pound, the upturn surprising buyers.

Edward Como who died in Middletown Monday night, was for many years a resident of Moodus. He was the owner of Chapman's falls and sawmill at the Devil's Head which is now part of the state park.

E. T. Smith, first selectman of Hebron, received last week from Charles J. Bennett, state highway commissioner, notification that the road from Columbia to Hebron Center is to be built this year. Work is commencing soon.

An oil refinery corporation has taken an option on sixteen acres of land in Waterford between the track of the Central Vermont railroad and the Connecticut Trolley Co., about one mile north of the New London city line.

Tickets for the Edward Morris recital at Cranston's store—adv.

Shad fishermen in the state towns are making great preparations and will be out in full force the first day of May or at midnight the 6th Sunday. Freshet on the river, the water is so cold that fish would not enter the Connecticut river.

That the public may become acquainted with the various processes of handling the mail, the post office department has suggested a postal visitation day to be held in connection with Postal Improvement Week, the designated date of which is May 1 to 6.

It is announced from Hartford that starting next week the sessions of the superior and common pleas courts will start at 9 a. m. instead of at 10 a. m. as at present, and court sessions will recess for lunch and close an hour earlier than at present.

The retail price of gasoline was advanced one cent a gallon last week in a number of Connecticut towns, twenty-seventy cents being the average price asked by retailers. The rise followed an advance of one cent made by the wholesale companies dealing in this state.

The Triple Link whist will be postponed until Thursday, May 4—adv.

When the Parish Aid society of Trinity Episcopal church, Mrs. Walter C. Brinkmann president, met in the vestry Thursday afternoon to sew on Backus hospital supplies, the sum of $10.00 was raised toward the rectory mortgage fund and plans were made for a food sale and a rummage sale.

Musicians from Connecticut will go across the border for the third annual observance of New York's Music Week which will begin next Sunday. More than 2,000 musical events have been arranged for the week in Greater New York and in suburbs within a radius of thirty-five miles.

Will you be counted in the enthusiastic audience at "The Poppy Trail," Slater Hall, Saturday evening—adv.

A rule of the Norwich water department provides that no person shall take water for building purposes from any tap, pipe, hydrant or other fixture (either public or private), except from metered services, without first obtaining a written permit from the commissioners or their agents.

License your dogs in the town clerk's office now. One dollar extra after May 1. Office open till 6 o'clock Saturday and Monday evenings—adv.

An intensive effort to collect clothing discarded by Connecticut people, to be sent overseas for the use of thousands of ill-fed orphans and refugees in the Bible lands, will be carried on in Connecticut from May 12 to June 1. It was announced this week by Mrs. E. H. McConough, state director of the Near East relief.

The United States civil service commission announces an examination for junior medical officer, for vacancies as physician in the Indian service and as surgeon in the Coast and Geodetic Survey. Entrance salaries in the Indian service range from $1,000 to $1,200 a year; quarters, heat and light are furnished free.

BELL ALARM FOR FIRE
IN HIGH STREET SHED
Thursday afternoon at 6 o'clock a bell alarm from box 13, Thames and High streets, called out the fire department for a small fire in a shed at No. 98 High Street. The flames were quickly extinguished with chemical. Children playing with matches were thought to have been responsible for the fire.

The property is owned by George Greenberger and is occupied by Joseph Chubbette.

PERSONALS

Dr. C. D. Ussher has returned to Stonington after a visit at Norwich.

J. B. Caron of the Ladies' Specialty Shop, has returned from a trip to New York.

Mrs. Helen Hovey Sterry of New London, is visiting her son, Allen Sterry of New Jersey.

Mrs. Rose Mansfield has sold her house on Cottrell street, Mystic, to purchasers from Manchester and will move this week to Ledyard in the house with her mother, Mrs. Sarah Maine.

PROMISE ENTERTAINING PROGRAM FOR REPUBLICAN GET-TOGETHER
Arrangements made by the republican town committee for the get-together dinner and meeting next Tuesday evening at the Wauregan house promises an entertaining programme. Hon. Edwin W. Higgins will be toastmaster, and the speakers will include Mayor H. M. Hurler, Lee Roy Robbins, Chairman H. H. Pettis of the town committee, Mrs. Frank A. Mitchell and a prominent New Haven woman. Rev. C. H. Ricketts has been invited to ask the blessing at the dinner and there will be a duet by Eben Learned, tenor, and Mrs. Edwin A. Harris, contralto. All the indications point to a large and enthusiastic gathering.

STUFFED ROAST PORK
Creamed onions Mashed potatoes
Rolls Pickles
Ice Cream Cake Cigars

William N. Ortmann, chief patriarch, was toastmaster. The blessing was asked by Rev. W. D. Hetherington of Fitchville and there were interesting remarks by several visiting patriots, including those from New London, Mystic and other encampments.

Immediately after the banquet the members adjourned to the lodge room, where the degree was worked on the class under the direction of master John P. Amburn. The work was inspected by the grand officers of the

LAFFAYETTE COUNCIL GIVES EVENING OF WHIST
An evening of whist by Lafayette council, No. 287, L. U. St. J. B. of A. had twenty tables playing Thursday at the Buckingham Memorial. The prizes went as follows: Ladies—Miss F. McNulty, candlestick; Mrs. J. Maurice, silk scarf; Mrs. Hoelke, Madeira dolly; Mrs. Frank Devo, powder (1st jar); gentlemen—Larvenca Gaudier, $2.50 gold piece; John Cleveland, pack of cards in case; Napoleon Lancia, silver pencil; Frank Discoe, cigarette holder.

Dancing, for which Carl Parker's orchestra was in the house, the whist, Mrs. J. B. Caron was chairman of the committee of arrangements.

OBITUARY.
Wm. A. Hoyle
William A. Hoyle of New London, a Spanish War veteran, died Thursday at Newport, N. H., after being removed from the Soldiers' home at Hampton, N. H. He had been a sufferer from abdominal trouble for several months. His condition became so serious during the last few weeks that he decided to go to the National Soldiers' home.

Mr. Hoyle was 50 years old and he was a native of Danbury. He had lived in New London for several years and was prominent in union labor circles, being formerly president of the Painters' union and of the Central Labor union. He also formerly held an office in the state labor union.

Mr. Hoyle was well known and was one of the labor union candidates for congress under the name of "Red Charlie." He was a member of Non-Resistant tribe of Red Men of which he was a past sovereign. He was also a member of George M. Dole camp, Spanish War Veterans. He leaves his wife and a daughter, Mrs. McDonough of Mystic.

Mrs. Frederick S. Steward
Mrs. Addie M. Palmer, wife of Frederick S. Steward of 48 Ocean avenue, New London, died at her home Wednesday afternoon at 10 o'clock. She had been seriously ill for the past two weeks but hopes had been held out for her recovery. Her only membership in any local organization was that in the New London Horticultural society. She was especially fond of flowers and very proficient in their culture.

She was an attendant at the First Baptist church. Mrs. Steward was a native of Canterbury. She came to New London to reside, following her marriage to Mr. Steward 26 years ago.

Besides her husband she leaves one daughter, Miss Myra A. Steward, two brothers and four sisters. The brothers are Asher P. Palmer of Philadelphia and William J. Palmer of Saginaw, Mich. The sisters are Mrs. A. B. Latham of Willimantic, Miss Frances E. Palmer of Canterbury and Mrs. Daniel Chase of Indianapolis, Ind. Another sister, Mrs. Albert P. Day of Hartford, died about four years ago. There are also three nieces and four nephews.

FUNERALS.
Mrs. Alfred H. Smith
The funeral of Hattie Phillips, wife of Alfred H. Smith, was held from the home of Joseph Burton, No. 369 West Main street, Thursday afternoon at one o'clock, with a large attendance of relatives and friends. At 2 o'clock the funeral service was held at the Bozrah Congregational church the pastor of the church officiating. At the close of the service a hymn was rendered by Mrs. Helena M. T. Church.

Relatives acted as bearers and burial took place in the Johnson cemetery at Bozrah. Undertakers Church and Allen had charge of the funeral arrangements.

One cheer is better than a dozen howls.

Hot Senatorial Race Promised For Minnesota

Notices have been sent to all the directors of Americanization in the state by State Director Denning to attend the regular semi-annual conference to be held at the Hotel Garde, New Haven, on Saturday, May 13, commencing at 11 a. m., at which the following subjects will be discussed:

1.—What can be done in the summer months.
2.—Methods for reaching employers and employees.
3.—Pending federal bills.
4.—Certification of local teachers.
5.—Problems and principals of naturalization.

This conference has been called by suggestion of Commissioner Meredith and promises to be one of the most important yet held, much so that it is obligatory on every director to attend. All necessary expenses will be paid by the department.

Archer-Miller Wedding.
Announcement is made of the marriage in Westbury, N. Y., of Miss Martha Lillian Miller, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Miller of that place, to Richard Thomas Archer, son of Mrs. J. H. Archer of 46 Hempstead street, New London. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Henry Bruno at the rectory of the Church of the Immaculate Conception.

Mr. and Mrs. Archer will make their home in New London. They were employed by the Eastern Connecticut Power company at the Montville plant.

Combat Train Rifle Team Wins
First Battalion Combat Train, 12nd artillery, Capt. E. E. Burdick, captain, listed one recruit Thursday evening. During the evening the Combat Train rifle team defeated Battery B, 136th to 1357. The shoot was part of the state indoor rifle match.

INCIDENTS IN SOCIETY
Mr. and Mrs. Rollin C. Jones are in Collinsville for several days.

Mrs. Frederick T. Sayles and Miss Alice Sayles have been visiting in Swanton, Pa., with Miss Margaret Swarthmore, a student at the Mary Lyon school.

Miss Clementina Jordan, teacher of Spanish at Norwich Free Academy, was in New London Wednesday evening to attend a shower given in honor of Miss Rita Robinson of the Vocational school.

Miss—"Bridget, what all the cuckoo clock is about? It's Italy!"
Biddy—"Well, mum, there do be a strange cat around the kitchen an' like the pore burrd is afraid to come out!"—Boston Transcript.

PALMYRA ENCAMPMENT CELEBRATES

I. O. O. F. 103rd ANNIVERSARY

Palmyra Encampment, No. 3, I. O. O. F., celebrated the 103rd anniversary of the order with a banquet at 6:30 Thursday evening in Odd Fellows' hall followed by work in the royal purple degree upon a class of 12 candidates.

Delegations from Windham encampment of Willimantic, Orion encampment of New London and Mystic encampment of Mystic were present.

The banquet was served by Hope Rebekah lodge, No. 21, and 150 set down to the following menu:

Stuffed roast pork
Creamed onions Mashed potatoes
Rolls Pickles
Ice Cream Cake Cigars

William N. Ortmann, chief patriarch, was toastmaster. The blessing was asked by Rev. W. D. Hetherington of Fitchville and there were interesting remarks by several visiting patriots, including those from New London, Mystic and other encampments.

Immediately after the banquet the members adjourned to the lodge room, where the degree was worked on the class under the direction of master John P. Amburn. The work was inspected by the grand officers of the

MAJORITY FOR DAYLIGHT SAVING IN CONNECTICUT
According to a survey of the daylight saving sentiment in Connecticut, taken by the Manufacturers' association of the state, Stamford and Norwich stand out as practically the only districts in the state in which the sentiment is reported against daylight saving.

The Manufacturers' association gives out the following summary, based on reports from representatives of manufacturers' associations and from the press: Ansonia—Derby—Seymour—Shelton District—No formal action taken. Consensus of opinion of manufacturers that this district will adopt daylight saving.

Bristol District—Reports indicate that this district will adopt daylight saving. Danbury District—No formal action taken. Merchants reported in favor of daylight saving.

Eastern Connecticut District—No action yet taken. Reports that this district will not adopt daylight saving. Hartford District—Formal action taken by Manufacturers' association adopting daylight saving.

New Britain District—Formal action taken. Reports indicate that this district will adopt daylight saving. New Haven District—Board of aldermen voted to adopt daylight saving. Manufacturers and merchants reported generally in favor of daylight saving.

Norwich District—Reported that this district is opposed to daylight saving. Southington District—No formal action taken. Reported that this district will undoubtedly adopt daylight saving.

Stamford District—No formal action taken. Reported that this district will undoubtedly conduct its business on standard time.

Waterbury District—Rotary club has formally adopted daylight saving. Reported that this district will undoubtedly adopt daylight saving in accordance with the plan in effect during the previous year.

Windsor District—Manufacturers' association has voted to support daylight saving, and selectmen have gone on record favoring the plan.

DOUBLE SHOWER GIVEN BY UNIVERSALIST YOUNG PEOPLE
A pretty double shower was given Thursday evening at the Universalist church for Miss Elizabeth Phillips and Miss Leotta Ott by the Young People's Christian union of the church and a farewell gift was made to Rev. George H. Welch, the pastor, who is to leave on May 15 to take a pastorate at Waterbury.

The stage was decorated in the colors of the society, blue and white, and two large baskets were arranged there, one with refreshments and the other with gifts for Miss Ott. At the proper time the entire party of 35 formed in line and marched up to the stage, where refreshments were presented.

Harold Cobb made a presentation of the pastor on behalf of the society, giving him a beautiful electric lamp, for which he warmly thanked the members. Music and refreshments concluded the evening, which was arranged for by a committee with Mrs. Walter A. Bussey, chairman.

Mason's Island Shacks Burned.
As the result of a brush fire that swept over Mason's Island Thursday morning, four summer shacks at Money Point were destroyed. The shacks that were destroyed were one room structures and it is estimated that they cost between $350 and $400 apiece, so the damage probably exceeded $1,500. It is said that the buildings were owned by Dr. Gordon S. Allen of Waterford, and John Palmer, who lives in California.

Sorely Giving a Whist Evening
An evening of whist conducted in P. A. hall Thursday by Sigma Beta Phi society of the Academy twenty tables were played and the prizes went to Miss Elizabeth Phillips, Miss Margaret Delaney, at bridge the prize went to Miss Helen Woods. Dancing concluded the evening with an attractive programme by Herb Smith's orchestra.

Return From Florida.
Mr. and Mrs. Louis Mabrey of Ocean Beach, who have been in St. Petersburg, Fla. for the winter, returned to New London Wednesday and are with Mrs. A. W. Rogers of Williams street in that city until the opening of the hotel season.

Beginning North Main Street Concrete.
The first of the concrete for the completion of the North Main street road was poured Thursday, starting at the junction of North Main street and Boswell avenue.

$895
A car you can depend on at a price that's right

GARDNER
THE ARMY GARAGE
F. G. Pieper, Prop.
Tel. 756-2
319 Franklin St. Norwich Ct.

INCIDENTS IN SOCIETY
Mr. and Mrs. Rollin C. Jones are in Collinsville for several days.

Mrs. Frederick T. Sayles and Miss Alice Sayles have been visiting in Swanton, Pa., with Miss Margaret Swarthmore, a student at the Mary Lyon school.

Miss Clementina Jordan, teacher of Spanish at Norwich Free Academy, was in New London Wednesday evening to attend a shower given in honor of Miss Rita Robinson of the Vocational school.

Miss—"Bridget, what all the cuckoo clock is about? It's Italy!"
Biddy—"Well, mum, there do be a strange cat around the kitchen an' like the pore burrd is afraid to come out!"—Boston Transcript.

WE ADVERTISE EXACTLY AS IT IS

STYLISH CLOTHES

If your clothes are not stylish, you are not.

And it doesn't do much good to get style if the quality isn't back of it.

What's the good of style, if the suit doesn't keep shape, and doesn't wear well?

A suit bought here is guaranteed to have the quality back of the style—

$25 to $45 the Suit

Murphy & McGarry
207 Main Street

SAMPLE MILLINERY AT ONE-HALF PRICE.
You will be surprised at the wonderful line of

MILLINERY
THE PASKIN CO. are showing this season.
The Paskin Co. Sell for Less.

PRISON SENTENCES FOR INTENT TO STEAL LIQUOR
New Haven, Conn., April 27.—On the charge of burglary which involved specifically a plan to steal liquor George E. O'Connell, 24, and Louis J. Alimin, 24, were sent to state prison today for long terms, O'Connell's being from 12 to 16 years, and Alimin's nine to fourteen years by Judge Avery.

The police had received a tip that burglars intended to get into the home of Abe Lapides to steal liquor under a hood to be in the cellar. A watch was set and the men mentioned and one other were caught at the house after they had spent some time riding around the neighborhood in a car.

PUBLISHERS TO RESIST INTERFERENCE WITH RIGHTS
New York, April 27.—Members of the American Newspaper Publishers' association in their annual convention here today adopted a resolution expressing "determination to resist all interference with the rights of its members and of the press to free expression under the constitutional guarantee."

ALL THE WORLD AT WORK
Early in 1921 one-half of the automobiles in the United States were using alcohol as fuel. Today 99 percent of these cars have returned to gasoline. The various objections to alcohol as fuel can be removed if it is used by specially designed motors and by other adaptations.

Last year was the most unsatisfactory that the Nottingham (England) lace manufacturers have known in five decades. South America, Mexico and Cuba bought very little, because of financial conditions.

Printing is now the seventh largest industry in South Africa. There are 239 printing establishments there. —Daily Commerce Reports.

Woman Suffrage Fails in Japan
A universal suffrage bill has been defeated in the Japanese Diet. Two years ago, when universal suffrage was before the Diet, two parties each demanded its own bill; this time, though they co-operated on a joint bill, the vote was 243 to 147 against—Woman Citizen.

Little Worries for Man
Little things sometimes worry a man the most—twins for instance—Doorway to Light.

Mixed-Jury Results
This country is having its experience with mixed juries, and the results are not at all inspiring.—New York Herald.

Danbury.—If a new departure in the hat manufacturing industry in this city that is being inaugurated by the Frank H. Lee company proves successful, Danbury may soon become a center of the straw hat industry, as it has long been the leading field hat manufacturing center of the United States.

COMFORTABLE DEPENDABLE GLASSES
Clips for nose glasses and temples for spectacles, perfectly adjusted to assure comfort and satisfaction.

Glasses correct in focus and fit—thoroughly dependable. You'll get them here.

C. A. SPEAR
OPTOMETRIST
Franklin Sq.
Norwich, Conn.

HAIR GOODS
10c Silk Hair Nets, with elastic top 6c
10c Hair Nets, single or double mesh, cap or fringe shape, all colors—6 for 39c, or each 7c
15c Twnet, double mesh, cap shape, all colors 10c
25c Gray or White Hair Nets, single or double mesh, cap or fringe 15c

TOILET PAPER
5c Mars Rolls, Crepe 3c
10c Rolls, Crepe 7c
12c Fine Tissue, 1,000 sheets, rolls 7c
35c Manila Tissue, 2,500 sheets 24c
$2.00 A. P. W., finest Tissue made in cartons, containing 10,000 sheets $1.65

The Porteous & Mitchell Co.

Porteous & Mitchell COMPANY

THE

SPRING SALE OF

TOILET GOODS

NOW IN PROGRESS

BUY TOILET GOODS NOW!

TOILET CREAMS

25c Daggett & Ramadell's Cold Cream 20c
30c Jergens Benzoin and Almond Lotion 23c
30c Pond's Extract Vanishing or Cold Cream 24c
35c Pompeian Night Cream, 27c
35c Daggett & Ramadell's Cold Cream 29c
50c Stillman's Freckle Cream 35c
50c Hind's Honey and Almond Cream 37c
50c Luscious Gold or Vanishing Cream 39c
50c Cuticura Ointment 40c
60c Resinol Ointment 40c
60c Pompeian Massage Cream 43c

TOILET SOAPS

5c Lemon Oil Soap 4c